Contents

Preface .......................................................................................................................... 7
Kirsten Jæger Fjetland, Anita Gjermestad and Inger Marie Lid

1. Lived citizenship for persons in vulnerable life situations – theories and practices. Introduction ................................................................. 9
Kirsten Jæger Fjetland, Anita Gjermestad and Inger Marie Lid

Lived citizenship in the context of older citizens, citizens with chronic conditions and dementia

2. Citizenship for persons with dementia in nursing homes:
A literature review ................................................................................................. 29
Marianne Sund, Halvor Hanisch and Kirsten Jæger Fjetland

3. “A tune beyond us, yet ourselves”: An ethics of the unconscious and cultural citizenship in dementia ....................................................................... 46
Oddgeir Synnes

4. Participation, civil society and citizenship later in life .................................. 62
Kjersti Helene Haarr and Karen Synne Groven

5. How may digital healthcare influence citizenship for people with chronic conditions? A narrative review ............................................................ 79
Silje Stangeland Lie, Kirsten Jæger Fjetland and Miroslava Tokovska

Lived citizenship in the context of intellectual disability

6. The significance of relations. Rethinking autonomy in a disability perspective ....................................................................................... 99
Inger Marie Lid

7. Citizenship and human rights ......................................................................... 114
Simon Duffy

8. Citizenship of resistance ................................................................................. 131
Kirsten Jæger Fjetland

9. From struggles of belonging to struggles of becoming:
Acts of resistance in the drama I Answered a Dream ....................................... 147
Vibeke Glørstad
10. Materiality and the enactment of citizenship in assisted living facilities for young adults .............................................. 162
Kristina Hoydal and Hilde Thygesen

11. Citizenship for persons with profound intellectual disabilities – everyday living within professional care practices ......................... 180
Anita Gjermestad and Synne N. Skarsaune

12. Trauma-conscious understanding: A contribution to quality in professional relations and citizenship in environmental work ............... 196
Hanne Line Wærness, Oliva Teigland and Anita Gjermestad

13. Self-determination and citizenship .............................................. 213
Kirsten Jæger Ejetland and Peter Paluga

A postscript by Ruth Bartlett ................................................... 232

Authors ................................................................................. 235