

English for Engineers

Part of the Access Programme (forkurset) to qualify for Engineering Studies

Table of Contents

Foreword	page 2
Chapter 1: Speaking and translation	page 5
Stress, intonation, pronunciation, and translation
Reading texts on robotics and Petroleum Engineering
Chapter 2: Basic Grammar.....	page 29
Verb conjugations, subject-verb agreement, continuous aspect, parallelism, gerunds, adverbs, adjectives, pronouns, prepositions, ambiguous and vague reference, typical errors
Reading texts on Civil Engineering
Chapter 3: Sentences & Paragraphs	page 61
Sentence types, compositions, and combinations; fragments, clauses, and phrases; modifiers, appositions and linking words; connectors and conjunctions; paragraph structure and topic sentence
Reading texts on Computer Science and Computer Engineering
Chapter 4: Vocabulary & Style	page 87
Informal and informal language, academic and domain-specific vocabulary, passive voice modal verbs, hedging and language when referring to sources
Reading texts on Maritime Engineering and Navigation
Chapter 5: The Essay	page 118
Structure and composition; critical thinking and the importance of the Introduction.
Sample essays
Chapter 6: Writing in the Workplace	page 130
Formal letters and emails, manuals and instructions, summaries and reports, presentations, and popularization
Reading texts on Mechanical Engineering	